GREAT PETER KNEW HOW FOR GOLD STAR MOTHERS. ADAM'S OLD EXCUSE.

By Arthur Brisbane
(Copyright 1929, By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

LOS ANGELES, CAL., Feb. 7.—The shooting of the Mexican president, his wife and another, none killed, fortunately, will mean drastic action in Mexico. No nation will tolerate, even in civilized times, a campaign for the control of government by murder. Back of the young hand that fired the shots there stands the shadow, some murderous organization, relying on terror and using servile tools for its purpose.

Ortiz Rubio and the powerful Portes Gil, former president, now Rubio's secretary of the interior, will find a way to terrify the terrorists. They could learn something by reading the history of Peter the Great. That giant Muscovite terrorized the most terrible. A branch of his army presumed to plot for government control. He killed thousands of them in a few days.

When he discovered a plot against his life as he did often, his action struck dreadful terror.

Living conspirators were gathered around a great scaffold of death and torture. Conspirators that were dead, some of them executed, were taken from their graves, placed on sleds drawn by dogs and dragged beneath the scaffold. There the blood of the living conspirators, tortured and killed, dripped upon the dead conspirators.

That is unthinkable in our day, no matter what the provocation. But Mexico will have to strike at the root of her murder trouble or confess failure. And the men now in power will not do that. Peter was horribly brutal but he died in his bed, and forced Russia to accept trading from western Europe, creating what is powerful in Russia today.

None withstood him. The terrible Charles of Sweden could not overcome him. He even made old Russia cut off their long beards, to prove that Russia's only will must be the will of Peter. Many old Russians saved their beards, had them put in their coffins, that they might be with whippers and look respectable. They forgot that in the Bible it says, "On that day the Lord shall shave with a razor that is hired."

Before the would-be murderer shot him, Ortiz Rubio, in his brief inauguration address, had promised that all classes of Mexicans "should enjoy the privilege of being classed as men." Those familiar with conditions under which Mexico's lower classes have lived, and with the attitude toward them of the upper classes, will know what that means to the Mexican underdog.

Congress votes more than five million dollars that "gold star" mothers may visit their sons' graves in France. Of 11,000 mothers entitled to go, 6,000 have expressed a desire to go. Many cannot go, because of duties at home. Others, perhaps, dread the sorrowful shock. To those that do not go, Congress should pay in cash the pro rata amount that it would cost to send them, about one thousand dollars. No other course would be fair.

Richard Stewart, rug merchant of Warren, O., is in jail. Judge Perry found him guilty of molesting a woman. Stewart offers an excuse as old as Adam. "The woman led me on." In jail, Stewart refused to eat, and is very thin after 73 starving days. It would have been fortunate for Adam, and for us, but not for the clothing business, had he likewise refused to eat.

POLICE BAFFLED IN QUESTIONING

Women Refuse To Disclose Clue After Quiz On Store Robberies In Ohio

Columbus, O., Feb. 7.—Police here today were baffled in their attempt to identify the "bobbed-haired bandit" who is wanted in connection with a number of Kroger grocery holdups and robberies, while three women were still held in city prison.

Mrs. Hallie Lopez, 42, is the principal suspect, but police admit that they have failed to positively identify her as the bandit. While she is being questioned, the woman has assumed the attitude of Irene Schrowder, blonde trigger woman, who is being held for the murder of a Pennsylvania state policeman. She is indifferent and has not disclosed a single clue on which police may base a theory.

The other two women are Mrs. Grace Fox, alias Gardner, 41, and Mrs. Jeanette Powelson, 36, both of Columbus.

All three women have denied any knowledge of the robberies. Mrs. Lopez became ill late yesterday, and her questioning was suspended temporarily.

HUNGER STRIKER STILL ON FAST

Warren Man Refuses To Eat After 23 Days In Jail; Claims No Ill Effects

Warren, O., Feb. 7.—Raving and ranting at what he calls the "unfairness" of his incarceration, Richard Stewart, Warren rug merchant, continued his "hunger strike" in the Trumbull county jail here today.

It is the third day of Stewart's fast. The man, who is serving out a fine of $200 and costs following his conviction on charges of molesting a woman, started the "hunger strike" in protest to his confinement.

Although all efforts and attempts at persuasion have failed thus far to make the man take food, Sheriff J. C. Risher declared today that he may take steps within a few days to force the man to eat. Stewart declares that he is not suffering from his self-imposed starvation and that he will continue his fasting indefinitely.

CITIZENS CLAIM LAW LAXITY IN HUNT FOR GIRL

Salesman Will Face Trial On Contributing Charges

Bucyrus, O., Feb. 7.—Aroused and indignant over alleged lack of full official cooperation in the search for Miss Lola Long, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Long, who disappeared from the home of M. F. Reiff, at Attica, more than three weeks ago, citizens of Crawford county today took the matter in their own hands.

Petitions which seek public subscriptions for funds to finance an advertising campaign and the offer of a reward for information leading to the girl's whereabouts or the fate, were being circulated throughout the county today.

Citizens Are Active

The petition was prepared by Proctor J. D. Sears at the request of the citizens' committee at Sulphur Springs, the girl's home. The girl's parents, who have seven other children, are unable to finance the search.

It has been learned that Probation Officer J. E. Myers, the only officer of Crawford and Seneca counties who is pressing an investigation of the girl's disappearance, has in his possession information of a supposedly sensational nature, which he refuses to disclose pending a further investigation.

His information is said to conform with suspicions of juvenile court officials. They believe that (Continued on Page 5)

PLANES CRASH IN HEAVY FOG

Expert Flying of Aviators Saves Lives of Pilots; Rip Part Of Wings From Craft

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., Feb. 7.—Expert maneuvering on the part of two pilots today prevented what might have been a double tragedy when two planes crashed in the fog above Roosevelt field. One of the planes was an army falcon biplane piloted by an officer from Mitchell field and the other was a training plane from Roosevelt field.

The pilots of the two planes sighted each other when the planes were about 30 feet apart. Expert handling prevented a head-on crash but the wings of the two planes touched. Eight inches of the lower wing of the training plane was sheared off and the fabric was badly torn, while a similar section of the left upper wing of the falcon was clipped.

Both pilots managed to land without mishap or injury. The army plane made its home field.

VICE-PRESIDENT OF BRAZIL SHOT

Several Reported Killed In Riot Following Death Attempt

Rio De Janeiro, Feb. 7.—Mello Vianna, vice president of Brazil, was seriously wounded today by a would-be assassin who fired several shots at the vice president while he was addressing a political meeting at Montes Claros, in Minas Gerais state.

Several persons were reported killed in the shooting.

Vice President Vianna was struck by two bullets, one lodging in his neck and the other in his shoulder.

He was immediately surrounded by his partisans who rendered first aid and valiantly battled the adherents of opposite political faith in what degenerated into a general conflict. The riot was broken up only upon the arrival of additional police.

The shooting of the vice president marked the second act of violence in the present political campaign. Deputy Piha was shot and killed on the floor of parliament on the day after Christmas by Deputy Simoes Lopes during a dispute over the presidential campaign.

Grangers To Meet

"How Can Parents Help Their Children Choose Their Life Work?" will be a topic for a meeting of the Goshen Township Parent Teacher association at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Goshen township high school. A splendid program has been arranged for this meeting.

Bill Roper Terms Prohibition "Hooy"; Wants Referendum

Philadelphia, Feb. 7.—Prohibition is a "lot of hooy" in the estimation of William (Bill) Roper, famous Princeton football coach and Philadelphia city councilman.

The majority of the country is against it, Roper said, although he dressed himself as "a 100 per cent dry."

Drinking in colleges hasn't decreased a bit in the last 10 years, in Roper's opinion. He wouldn't say it had increased either.

Roper's denunciation of prohibition came about as a result of the recent controversy here between the wets and dries. He charged that exclusive homes are bathed in liquor.

BRITAIN AGREES WITH STIMSON'S NAVY PROGRAM

Expresses Willingness to Enter On Basis Of Fifteen Ships

WOULD MEAN FIVE SHIPS TO WRECK

Social Affairs Occupying Delegates After End of Week's Labor

London, Feb. 7.—Swinging into line on Secretary of State Stimson's Anglo-American disarmament program, the British government today issued a lengthy document setting forth the British naval policy which expressed this country's willingness for battleship parity with America on a basis of 15 ships each.

The British aim, the document reveals, is for America and Britain each to reduce their capital ship fleets to 15 each, while Japan would be allotted a 66 2-3 per cent ratio in battleships, representing an increase of one over the 5-5-3 ratio granted at the Washington conference.

If the United States builds the fleet of eighteen cruisers she asks, Britain could not possibly grant Japan the 70 per cent, cruiser ratio that has been requested, the admiralty pointed out.

So far as battleships are concerned, the admiralty had another objection. In order to bring about battleship parity between Britain and America by 1931 on a basis of 15 each, it would mean the immediate scrapping of five capital ships by this country and three by America.

Such a step, according to the admiralty, would be impossible unless the vessels were taken out to sea and blown to pieces.

Furthermore, the admiralty declares it could not absorb the 5,000 men forming the crew of the five scrapped battleships immediately, but could arrange their reallocation if the scrapping were delayed until (Continued on Page 5)

YOUNGSTOWN TO GET LARGE MILL

Ten Million Dollars Will Be Spent by Concern In New Plant

Youngstown, O., Feb. 7.—Reports of a consolidation of Youngstown Sheet & Tube company, Inland of Chicago, and Jones & McLaughlin of Pittsburgh, persisted here today following the authorization by directors of the Youngstown concern here yesterday for the expenditure of $10,000,000 to erect a continuous sheet mill.

On the basis of the expansion program, it was deemed unlikely that Youngstown Sheet & Tube is to become a member of the newly-organized $335,000,000 new Republic steel corporation.

The proposed continuous sheet mill of the Youngstown company will be built at the Brier Hill works. It will be operated, according to the announcement, under American rolling mills patents, acquired recently by Sheet & Tube, and it is expected to furnish employment for more than 1,000 men.

TEN MEN STILL MISSING AFTER BLAST IN UTAH

Lethal Fumes Spread In Rapid Manner After Minor Explosion

RESCUE CREWS IN ATTEMPT TO SAVE

Three Survive Danger of "Damp" Gas; Fate Of Ten Unknown

BULLETIN

Standardville, Utah, Feb. 7.—The list of known dead in the mine disaster here stood at 18 this afternoon. Five of the 10 men entombed were rescued alive after over 12 hours underground.

Standardville, Utah, Feb. 7.—Sixteen bodies, blackened from the coal miner's greatest enemy—after damp—had been removed from the Standard coal company's mine here today following an explosion shortly after 9 o'clock last night that spread the lethal fumes through the workings of No. 1 and No. 3 mines.

Thirty men were at work when the explosion occurred.

Three of them escaped alive, one was rescued in a semi-conscious condition, but is still alive, and 10 are unaccounted for and little hope is held for rescuing them alive.

The explosion itself caused little damage, but it spread shortly after and officials of the mine held out little hope for the lives of the seven miners who have not been located.

There were 30 men in the mine at the time of the explosion. Three un-injured men walked out unassisted.

According to coal company officials, the explosion resulted from sparks from a mine cutting machine which ignited the deadly gas in the underground workings.

The explosion itself caused little damage and injured no one, but the terrible after-damp spread rapidly from mine No. 3, where the blast let go, to mine No. 1, more than a mile distant, where the 30 men were at work.

A rescue crew of six men was sent to the mine shortly after the explosion in an effort to reach the 10 miners who have not been heard from since the explosion. After-damp still prevailed, however, and the work of penetrating some two miles underground where the missing miners are believed to be was badly hampered.

Virtually all of the dead miners were the heads of families and the 350 inhabitants of Standardville were grief stricken today.

Scores of women and children gathered near the scene of the fatal explosion, imploring mine officials and rescue workers to bring out "dead or alive" the missing miners.

Nearly all the victims were American born.

ASSURANCE

Parents have been conscious within the past few weeks as never before of the desirability of being advanced positive assurance of the safety of their children while traveling to and from school. There have been many disastrous accidents affecting school buses but never such a gruesome series as has occurred in this section recently.

The procedure adopted by a Stark county township district to protect some 300 children attending the centralized school is a notable example of what may be accomplished by the application of methods of extreme caution. A junior policeman assigned to each school bus advances ahead of the vehicle at every crossing to guarantee a safe crossing. In addition he protects the smaller children upon entering and leaving the bus and assists the driver in other ways.

The bus drivers themselves are selected carefully on their merits as dependable men and are under strict supervision. A strong sense of responsibility is encouraged in them by the extra precautions taken by the students themselves. Upon the adult driver, naturally, rests the bulk of the responsibility at all times and precautions are futile unless he is trustworthy.

Safety measures, even as strict and intelligent as those prevailing in this township, are not fool-proof. Accidents may occur, as they will in any system, but on the whole there is a greater degree of assurance prevailing in the minds of both the parents and the children themselves. Any scheme which cuts down the hazard of student transportation is worthy if it succeeds in doing nothing other than establishing confidence.

Thousands of children travel to and from school five days a week. It has only been through the exercise of extreme caution that the accident toll has been kept as low as it is. But there is still further ground to be gained and the example set by this township will light the way. The officials who conceived it and the other officials who imitate it deserve the commendation of everyone interested in the safety of children.

PEDESTRIANS VINDICATED

Pedestrians whose jumping ability has not been improved by frequent practice are cheered by a decision of the United States district court of appeals guaranteeing legal protection from the time they step into the highway until they complete the crossing, even though the signal may change during that time. In other words, the pedestrian's right-of-way is established definitely. If he is struck by an auto, the negligence is not his who walks, but his who drives.

In part the decision says: "When a pedestrian steps from the curb to cross the street having a green signal with him, he does so by way of invitation and he cannot be charged with contributory neglect if the signal switches when he is in the street. Caught in this position, the obligation rests upon the motorist not only to observe the situation, but to wait until the crossing is clear."

Many drivers seem to believe that with the shift of signal lights their right of way is immediately assured. In this belief they start their machines regardless of pedestrians still in the middle of the street. There is a resultant scramble to attain a place of safety, attended by an occasional injury if the motorist lacks some degree of consideration.

Violations of crossing courtesy are comparatively infrequent. The majority of drivers approaching this city's many unprotected intersections observe commendable caution in most cases, but it is the small group observing no courtesy rules at all which brings down the wrath of the pedestrians.

There are too many intersections in the city to make police protection of all of them possible. The responsibility belongs to the motorist. If he will observe ordinary consideration and remember the days when he was a pedestrian himself the situation will soon remedy itself.

The discerning critic says that he favors the short skirt if it is short enough.

What Others Say

MRS. OWEN SHOULD REMAIN.
No technicality of law, if one exists, should be permitted to deprive Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen of her seat in the house of representatives. Though the widow of an Englishman, one would have to hunt pretty far to find a more thorough-going American than Mrs. Owen or one whose intelligence and dignity of character better fitted him or her to represent a constituency in our national legislature.

It seems hardly necessary to point out that Mrs. Owen was born in this country of revolutionary stock, the daughter of William Jennings Bryan—this paper frequently differed with Mr. Bryan's governmental proposals and policy; it never doubted his sincerity—and is therefore as thoroughly indigenous a product of the country and as completely steeped in its traditions as any person to be found within its boundaries. It happens that at the time of her marriage the law prescribed that any woman who became the wife of a foreigner automatically forfeited her American citizenship. But this discrimination against the sex was rectified in 1922 by the Cable act, which provides that an American-born woman who has lost her citizenship through marriage to a foreigner and has subsequently become naturalized shall be considered as having regained the status she enjoyed before her marriage. Mrs. Owen became naturalized in 1925, and she now contends that in the meaning of the law she was never an alien, and is therefore, as eligible to the house of representatives as if she had married an American.

Her Republican opponent, whose name we forget, insists, on the other hand, that she has not complied with the provision in the constitution which requires that a member of the house shall have been seven years a citizen of the United States. Mrs. Owen was elected in November, 1928. We know he is wrong in the spirit that animated him in raising such a pettifoggish objection and we hope that his legal interpretation of this constitutional provision as it affects Mrs. Owen's case will be held to be equally erroneous.—New York Herald Tribune.

Sunday marked the seventh anniversary of Rev. W. L. Swan's pastorate at the Presbyterian church. At the Sunday morning service the pastor spoke on a "Week of Years." James Gregoris, Butler, Pa. brother of George Gregoris, this city, left Monday for New York city from where he will sail for Sparta, Greece, his native town.

The Harvest Home picnic committee at a meeting Saturday afternoon decided to engage Oor Judson Harmon for the speaker at the next picnic on the last Saturday in August at Shelton's grove. Word from the governor is expected within a few days.

"Lavada suffered from constipation," says Mrs. Rose Temple, 5881 Pearl Road, Cleveland. "She was pale and bilious; didn't have any appetite; couldn't digest her food."

"California Fig Syrup has changed all that. It regulated her bowels quickly; improved her appetite and digestion. She has improved right along until friends say she's a regular prize-winner for health."

Mothers by thousands praise California Fig Syrup. Physicians endorse it. Its rich, fruity flavor appeals to children; its pure vegetable goodness is safe for any child. The prompt relief it brings bilious, head-achy, constipated children lasts because it helps tone and strengthen bowels and stomach. Next time bad breath, coated tongue or feverish, greenish stools warn of constipation, try it with your child and see how it helps!

When buying, look for the name California! That marks the genuine, famous for 59 years. Adv.

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

MONOTONY LOWERS MORALE

What is this thing we call debility? Many a person has gone to his doctor expecting to be told that something serious is gnawing at his vital. To his great joy the doctor has given the news that nothing serious is the matter, but that he is merely a sufferer from "debility."

Well, that is comforting, and yet, after all, everything is not as it should be. Debility is a condition which, if left to grow, may end in some really serious disturbance.

It is strange how one may lack strength at such a time. You haven't much interest in what is going on, you are quite indifferent whether you eat, sleep or move! Perhaps you do not sleep well, you feel irritable, and you just feel as though you aren't of any use to anybody!

Have you been too much engrossed in your business? Or perhaps you have allowed your household cares or other duties to keep you indoors too much. Staying up late nights, "burning the candle at both ends," as the saying goes, will eventually wear down your nerves so that you just cannot feel normal.

We all know there is always a cause for everything. Perhaps we never needed religion in the world more than we do today.

"Do not talk defeat to yourself!" It was Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick who said that such words "debilitate personality." I think he is right.

The world is filled with all sorts of curious and beautiful things, a walk abroad, wherever we are, will show us this. An interest in the things and people around us is good for us. We ought to enjoy the opportunity to get out into the fresh air. If we live in the city, at least part of the week-end, could be spent out in the country. The country is beautiful in the winter time as well as in the summer. Likewise, a few days in the city will wipe out many an attack of the "blues."

We all need relaxation and change of scene, occasionally it means health to us. For persons who are run-down for any reason, being out in the sunshine is an essential factor in getting well.

Probably one of the greatest factors in getting away from the everyday grind has been the automobile. It is a good thing for us to be able to see new sights and sounds. But do not overlook the fact that you need daily exercise and a general building up of your bodily health, so that the condition of debility will not grow to some more serious trouble.

Women Are Called Aviation Hindrance

Pittsburgh, Feb. 7.—Women are the greatest hindrance to the progress of aviation in the United States, says Miss Amelia Earhart, who achieved fame by becoming the first woman to fly across the Atlantic ocean and retain her reputation by continuing her exploits in the field of aviation.

Speaking here before the Hungrary club at a luncheon recently, Miss Earhart, one of the few women who has gained a transport pilot license, blamed her own sex for retarding the development of aviation through their fear. Their fear is not so much for themselves as it is for their husbands, brothers, or families, the famous woman flier said.

"As to women filling the position as pilots, I cannot see any reason why they would not be as capable as men. Of course with only a hundred or so who have the

PLANS FOR POST OFFICE PLEDGED TO YOUNGSTOWN

Delegation To Capital Hears Promise From Postmaster Brown

Washington, Feb. 7.—When plans for the proposed federal building in Youngstown, are finally drawn, they will be submitted to the city leaders of the city to learn if they conform architecturally with existing structures. Postmaster General Brown Friday informed a delegation of Youngstown business men.

The delegation, presented by Rep. Cooper (R.) of Ohio, consisted of Mayor Heffernan, James E. Jones, William I. Davies, William A. Mason, Harry Deibend, Andrew Henderson and J. Calvin Jones.

Youngstown has been allocated $310,000 for a new federal building, and of this amount $100,000 already has been appropriated. However, out of this sum, $67,000 must be used to purchase additional ground.

The delegation asked the plans not only be drawn in conformity with other buildings in the vicinity, but the buildings be large enough to meet the needs of the city for a long period of years.

Brown assured the delegation that the department would do its utmost in carrying out the wishes of the city.

CARD QUARREL ENDS FATALLY

Husband Shoots Wife After Long Time of Ill Feeling; Turns Gun on Self Later

Lorain, O., Feb. 7.—A domestic quarrel, said to have originated over a card game last Christmas holidays, today had reached its climax with the murder of Mrs. Minnie Nichols, 35, and the attempted suicide of her husband, 36, a machinist, her husband.

Nichols is in a serious condition at St. Joseph's hospital today with a bullet wound in his head. Since their separation recently, Mrs. Nichols had been working as a nurse in the home of Harold Graver here. Nichols went to the Graver home last night to see his wife. When he saw her in the house he fired through a window. The bullet struck Mrs. Nichols in the neck, killing her instantly.

Nichols then turned the gun on himself and collapsed in the yard.

SEARCH ORDERED FOR EXPLORERS

Wilkins Party Still Lost In Vast Ice Fields Of Ross Seas

New York, Feb. 7.—Plans to search for Captain Sir Hubert Wilkins, noted explorer, missing in the Antarctic for more than a week, were being rushed today according to a copyright dispatch in the New York American which was sent by wireless from Deception Islands.

Victor Olsen, radio operator on the whaler, Melville, now at the Wilkins base of operations, who set the dispatch, said as soon as possible a spare whaling vessel would be sent to search the ice-filled seas to the south of Melville, where the Wilkins exploration party is somewhere on the S. S. Scoresby.

Wilkins called south of the Melville searching for a suitable take-off side on the proposed Ross sea flight across the polar cap. Three aviation assistants are with him.

Olsen reported weather conditions at the base had been good but that sudden storms are prevalent in the ice sea to the south.

Wife Problems Are Many To This Man

Rockford, Ill., Feb. 7.—Ray Barry, 34, today will have to decide whether he is to keep wife number 7, the bride of a day, or make another chance in favor of wife number 6.

Barry's bride of yesterday, Grace Barry, was formerly his fourth wife. Shortly after the ceremony, Barry called police to his home and demanded the arrest of his sixth wife, Billie Adair, a parachute jumper. She was accompanying him, he charged.

Several hours later the bewildered bridegroom appeared at the police station. "I've decided to divorce Grace and marry Billie. So turn her loose," he told the astounded cops.

Communism May Have Been Cause of Attempted Murder Action

Mexico City, Feb. 7.—Daniel Flores, youthful Mexican who shot and severely wounded President Pascual Ortiz Rubio a few hours after his inauguration, has acknowledged his allegiance to the Communist cause, it was reported here today.

While previously Flores stoutly maintained he had attempted to assassinate the president for purely personal reasons, it is now reported the act was a result of Ortiz Rubio's initiative in the rupture of diplomatic relations between this country and Soviet Russia.

Mexican newspapers stress the fact that Charcos, state of San Luis Potosi, which is Flores' home town is a hot-bed of Communism.

WET-DRY DEBATE FOR CLEVELAND

Congressman and Senator To Cross Swords In Booze Argument

Cleveland, Feb. 7.—Congressman Pierello H. LaGuardia of New York and Senator Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa, two of the nation's most colorful political figures in the raging congressional liquor war, will cross swords over prohibition enforcement in a debate at public hall here tonight.

The two champions of bitterly opposed sides will argue for the benefit of an expected audience of more than 3,000 on the question "can prohibition be enforced?"

LaGuardia, the militant and outspoken critic of prohibition, will take the negative. He has promised an exposé of liquor enforcement which both dry and wet camps are awaiting with keen interest.

Pre-debate intimations have been that LaGuardia plans to hit the lid on alleged corruption in high Washington office attributable to prohibition. The New Yorker has stated that he plans to make his debate here the springboard for the attack on the liquor laws which are to come up for hearing in Washington next week.

Brookhart, Iowa individualist and unofficial spokesman of the Hoover administration, will take the affirmative of the question tonight. Each of the prohibition warriors will take the floor for 30 minutes. Following the deliverance of the bodies of their arguments the debaters will spend the remaining hour in rebuttal.

Mellinger Speaks To Church People

I. F. Mellinger, of Leetonia, gave an inspirational talk on "A Changing Christ in a Changing World" at a congregational meeting of the English Lutheran church Wednesday evening at the church.

"The church needs as never before the preaching of the pure gospel, as taken from the Holy Bible," Mellinger told his audience.

"While we creep to ahead at the present time in our country, there are many souls are crying for the saving gospel of Jesus Christ," he said. "Many people are church members only on the Lord's day, but fail to carry the Christian life into practice the other six days of the week. The 24 people of our day need to be challenged not to be ashamed of the gospel of our Saviour and Lord."

At the social period the Dorcas society served refreshments.

Salem Merchants Only

Being one of a series of chats with Salem business men in which they are told how they can increase volume of sales.

THERE'S money in Salem. There are people aplenty here to spend it. There's good business for you—if you, the merchants of Salem, join the Salem News in keeping Salem's business in Salem.

It all boils down to the very important thought that the nearby, bigger towns and mail order houses are ALWAYS trying to attract trade from the smaller communities.

Always trying! Very often succeeding! And, sad but all too true, to the detriment of you, the merchants of Salem and the merchants of all other smaller towns.

What to do about it is a problem you must help solve, if you are to prosper. A mighty vital problem it is, too, as you well know.

Just the same we can keep Salem's money in Salem. And the folk of Salem can be brought around to the habit of buying in Salem almost exclusively. And you can make both conditions possible.

Here's how.

The very next time a salesman from whom you order merchandise comes to your stores, sell him on Salem. Of course, you must sell yourself first. Get Salem-minded. Get the salesman feeling the same way.

You need the advertising aid of the manufacturers whose goods you stock—urge salesmen to recommend this paper

THE SALEM NEWS

When a salesman gets enthusiastic about Salem, he's bound to pass his enthusiasm on to the sales manager of his company.

And then the manufacturer of the goods you buy will begin thinking of Salem. He'll think of it, not as small spot on his office map, but as a community where you, his retailers, are trying to sell his goods for him.

He, too, will get Salem-minded and feel more justly obligated to give you the advertising support in your local, home town newspaper that he's giving his retailers in the bigger towns.

He'll get over the notion that he is reaching the folk of Salem with his advertising in bigger towns' newspapers and in the general magazines.

Yes, you merchants of Salem! That's the solution to the whole problem. Sell the manufacturers of the goods you stock your shelves with on Salem. Sell them through their salesmen.

The manufacturers' advertising in the Salem News will help you sell more of your merchandise to more and to the greatest number of Salem's people.

This advertising support will help keep Salem's money in Salem. It will mean good business for you—and more of it.

This newspaper has joined small town newspapers all over the country in a nation-wide campaign to convince national advertisers that they can best assist small town merchants by advertising in the local, home town newspapers of the small town merchants.

BENDER PETITION STILL OF VALUE

Attorney General Bettman Rules At Request of C. J. Brown

Columbus, O., Feb. 7.—The petitions, containing approximately 4,900 names of Ohio voters, filed last year by State Senator George H. Bender, Cleveland, in support of his proposed amendment to the state constitution, providing for the reapportionment of legislative districts so as to give the cities control of the state legislature, are still valid and may legally remain on file in the office of the secretary of state here. This ruling was given today by Atty. Gen. Gilbert Bettman to Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown.

This ruling disposes of the question as to whether these petitions, signed last year under provision of the former state election laws, were invalidated when the new Ohio election code, enacted at the last session of the state legislature, became effective this year.

State election officials today declared that approximately 240,000 such signatures must be on file with the secretary of state not later than Sept. 1, if Bender's proposal is to go on the November election ballot this year.

It is understood that Bender has numerous other similar petitions, containing thousands of names, signed last year which he may file with the secretary of state at an early date.

Five specific suits were filed against the Detroit company, all being tried simultaneously. Evidence in them was presented to the jury at 3:45 p. m. Wednesday and a verdict awarding judgment in each, was returned after being out a short time.

The verdict of the jury was unanimous in favor of the plaintiff. Under Michigan state laws verdicts in all damage suits must be verdicts of unanimous vote.

Dr. J. M. McGeorge of this city, testified in the suits in behalf of Mrs. Peters. Dr. McGeorge attended the injured woman during her stay at city hospital, here.

Commissioners To Conduct Road Quiz

Lisbon, Feb. 7.—A steam shovel employed in grading the North Georgetown-Westville road by the Dennison & Sturges Construction company of Youngstown has been moved from the project.

It is possible that another steam shovel will be placed on this job, and the rough and smooth grading finished in time for the road to be given a concrete top next summer.

Slow progress has been reported by County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk on the Valley-Salem road, and this situation is to be brought to the official attention of the county commissioners next Monday. It is the intent of the commissioners to have this latter highway given a concrete top this year, but so far about only one-sixth of the grading has been completed.

Liquor Theft Makes Man Legally Guilty

New York, Feb. 7.—You can't steal liquor and get away with it. That in effect was the ruling on a case today in general sessions court after Judge Rosinsky sentenced Thomas Kennedy to serve five years in prison for attempting to steal a gallon of wine.

Wine is contraband under the Volstead law but when a man tries to steal wine from another he is just as guilty as though he attempted to steal diamonds, it was held.

MISSING GIRL

Reiff, a salesman, has spirited the girl away and is hiding her. The parents of the girl, with the court officials have thoroughly searched every hospital and other public institution in northern Ohio without finding a single clue.

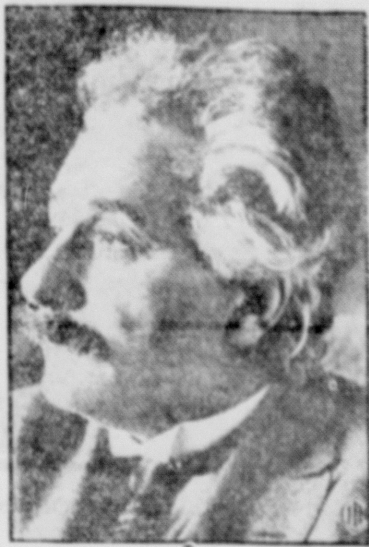

Out On Bond

Reiff is at liberty under $10,000 bond for appearance before Judge J. W. Miller in the Crawford county probate court, February 11, on a charge of contributing to the girl's delinquency. He denies the charge and declares that he does not know where the girl is.

Court officials claim that they have information that Reiff was seen with the girl in Bellevue the day after she disappeared from his home. The pretty 17-year-old Lola was employed by Reiff as housekeeper and governess for his children.

She disappeared from the Reiff home more than three weeks ago when Probation Officer Myers called there to take her into custody on a warrant which was sworn out by Mrs. Long, charging her with delinquency as a last "desperate" effort to take her from Reiff.

Einstein Advises Youth in Choosing Career

Descending momentarily from the rarefied precincts of relativity, Albert Einstein, noted scientist, advised the youth of today. The noted scientist delivered himself of some kindly and practical counsel to a young student who had sought his advice. He told of his own experience in choosing a calling. It is the era of the self-made man, where thousands of young men must depend on their own resources, rather than preferment, for success in their careers.

JURY DEBATES OVER MURDER

Man Is Alleged To Have Slain His Stenographer; Standing Ten To Two On Conviction

Austin, Tex., Feb. 7.—A Travis county jury has deliberated for more than 72 hours upon the fate of John W. Brady, prominent Texas jurist charged with murdering Leola Highsmith, 26-year-old stenographer, and apparently was far from agreement as Tuesday night when it received the case.

The jury was still reported to be hopelessly deadlocked, ten for conviction and two for acquittal.

Moved once from their original quarters to a room which did not give a view of Main street, the jurors were back in the first room again today. The belief that they were finding too much diversion in looking out the windows caused the move.

District Judge J. D. Moore remained firm in his intention to hold the jury indefinitely, in an attempt to force them to a decision.

Teacher Loses Job After Beating Girl

Cecilston, O., Feb. 7.—Lloyd Brown, 23, school teacher was without a teacher's license today after he had been convicted of assault and battery upon Cleo Gast, 14, by a jury yesterday.

William Melvin, county school superintendent, immediately revoked Brown's license upon learning the jury's decision.

Sentence has been deferred by the judge sitting on the case.

The whole affair came as the result of the Gast girl closing a school book too hard in class.

Bridge Over Creek Asked by Residents

Lisbon, Feb. 7.—A petition containing 50 names has been filed with Lemuel H. Johnson, commissioners' clerk, asking that a bridge be erected over the middle fork of Little Beaver creek from the Frank Bowman farm to the Elston-Clarkson road in section 26, Elkrun township.

The petitioners have set up that no bridge exists at this point, and that the creek has to be forded. It is also declared that during many months in the year it is impossible to ford the stream.

NAVAL PARITY

1930 as agreed upon at the Washington conference.

The committee of experts appointed yesterday met again today at St. James' palace, and recorded "good progress" on general questions. They met again tomorrow. Secretary Stimson conferred with Smooty, Irish free state delegate and Premier MacDonald during the day, and planned to leave this evening to spend the week-end at his country place in Middlesex with Ambassador Hugh Gibson.

Premier MacDonald will spend the week-end at his country place Chequers. He will entertain the Italian delegation there tomorrow for lunch, and will have as his guests some 30 naval experts and their wives.

London, Feb. 7.—It will cost the United States approximately $250,000,000 to build up to cruiser parity with Great Britain as provided for in Secretary of State Stimson's program, according to unofficial estimates here today.

This figure includes $150,000,000 for 10 eight-inch gun cruisers already authorized but not building, the remainder being for 75,000 tons of light cruisers which will have to be built.

In order to provide the necessary cruising radius, it is thought possible the light cruiser tonnage will be made up of a small number of 9,000 and 10,000 ton cruisers armed with six inch guns instead of 11 smaller vessels.

The British are attempting to prevent this step, seeking to limit six-inch gun cruisers to 7,000 tons or even less.

ROAD MARKERS CAUSE TROUBLE

State Will Act Following
Removal of Posts
By Residents

Lisbon, Feb. 7.—There has been considerable trouble in Columbiana county with property owners removing or moving to a new location concrete road monuments erected by the state highway department. These road monuments are approximately four feet in length and six inches in diameter and of concrete, with a copper plate attached reading: "State of Ohio Right of Way."

It has now been pointed out that those who move the monuments are subject to a fine of $250. The monuments are placed by the state highway department at intervals along the right of way of state roads.

The purpose of the monument is to serve as a guide to those who build along these state roads, in order that such new construction will be clear of the right of way.

Heretofore when monuments are found to be moved, the property owner will be held responsible for the removal and caused to pay the cost of erecting new monuments.

Speaker Advocates Highway Building

Lisbon, Feb. 7.—"New county highways and extensions to these highways already constructed should be built in close proximity to railroads in order that industrial acreage could be better developed," declared O. Old Pilgrimage Is Set for July Aschen, Feb. 7.—The traditional pilgrimage to Aschen, whose venerable Cathedral contains four of the most sacred relics of the Roman Catholic Church, will take place again from July 19 to 24.

Formerly these pilgrimages were held every seven years but the war interrupted them, and since then only one extraordinary pilgrimage was held in 1925.

They were first instituted by

Charlemagne, who was crowned in the Aschen Cathedral in 800, and in the fourteenth century the custom of holding them every seventh year began.

In the 14th and 15th centuries only Rome, San Lugo di Compostella and Jerusalem could boast such a great number of pilgrims. They came in such numbers in Germany, Austria, Bohemia and Hungary that special laws and hospitals were erected along the main routes to care for them.

In 1874 more than 60,000 pilgrims came on each of two successive Sun-

"SO THIS IS COLLEGE"
At The Grand
Snappy dialogue, tuneful melodies, jazzy dancing and all the game between rival universities thrills of a championship football make "So This Is College".
The new collegiate comedy was filmed on the campus of the University of Southern California, the first college in the country to be used as locale for a moving picture.
Hundreds of students worked in the picture as extras, giving a genuine atmosphere to the scenes showing the football game and the midnight bonfire rally.
Robert Montgomery and Elliott Nugent, Broadway stage juveniles, share leading masculine honors, and Sally Starr, a new Wood discovery, is the leading lady. Cliff (Ukelele Ike) Edwards fills the comedy role.

"THE SOPHOMORE"
At The State
Meet a new team of aspirants to the laurels of Romeo and Juliet. Eddie Quillan and Stanley Smith, handsome young juveniles, are the latest to portray Shakespeare's immortal sweethearts.
The occasion is a sequence of "The Sophomore" in which a college play is put on by an all-male cast to obtain funds for the football team enterprises. Eddie does the flowing draperies of Juliet and Stanley the tights and furbelows of Romeo.
"The Sophomore" adapted from a serial story running in College Humor, was brought to the screen under the direction of Leo McCarey. Its mirth provoking sequences are capably handled by a cast which includes, in addition to Eddie, in the feature role and young Smith in an important characterization, Sally O'Neil, Jeanette Loff, Lew Ayres and Jimmie Aldine.

Fay to Offer More American Biography

Paris, Feb. 7. — The French biographer, Bernard Fay, whose biography of Benjamin Franklin was accepted recently by the Book of the Month Club, is far from through with his picturing of the 18th century American radicalism and American political life.
His plans were formulated long before his present book became an almost immediate success in America. Next will come two volumes dealing with the intellectual life in America from 1800 to 1850, and from 1850 to 1900.
To the American mind, it is startling to hear that Benjamin Franklin was the actual leader of intellectual thought throughout Europe during the 29 years between 1770 and 1790, but such is the statement by Fay.
"Fay was the only American who ever lived who was looked upon as a really great man in Europe. Lincoln was unknown, and Woodrow Wilson was never introduced."

Fay is a French critic and college professor. His book on Franklin was written in French and immediately translated into English. Oddly enough, the French edition did not.

Engelmann Has Not Slept For 20 Years

Newcastle, Eng. Feb. 7. — A claim not to have slept for 20 years was made by Edward T. Maher, of Newcastle, who declares that doctors are still baffled by his affliction and are unable to cure him.
Maher has undergone many operations. During the World War he served with the British Army in France, and was known in his battalion as the "caller-up" due to the fact that he never slept and served as the battalion alarm clock.
"I never sleep," Maher says. "At night I just drift off into a sort of daze, but am fully conscious of everything that goes on about me. I sometimes smoke throughout the night."

Golden Eagle Registers Easy 38-15 Victory Over Grate Motors

Champions Outclass New Outfit; United Cigars Trim Printz

Flashy form characteristic of their play throughout the first half in which they rode to an easy city championship, the Golden Eagle swamped the supposedly strong Grate Motors aggregation for its second win of the final half in the city Class A circuit by a 38-15 score last night.

The motors, with an entirely new team that was expected to put up stiff opposition against the champs were outclassed in every phase of the game. The contest was played under protest of the Bird management due to alleged inelegibility of the entire Grate team but due to the result there will be no necessity of pushing the action.

The United Cigars trounced the Printz Klub quintet, 29-14 in the second Class A contest of the evening while the Trinity Lutherans upset the dope and trimmed the paper-making Fender Benders, 27-23, in the Class B prelim.

The defeat pulled the Fender Benders down a notch in league standings.

There was little action to feature either of the Class A contests. The only outstanding event of the entire evening was the decisiveness of the Golden Eagle's victory over the Grate team, something which was far from the expected in that the motors were presumed to be a much bolstered team through the addition of five new players.

The Motors looked strong in the first quarter and scored six points to the merchants' three but the latter crew stepped out in the second half and led, 12-8 going into the third quarter. Two field goals were all that the motors were able to tally in the final half, three points coming by the foul line. The Golden Eagles scored 26 in the last two periods.

The Tobies played brilliant basketball and held the Klubmen to a lone point in the first half, the score being 17-1. Jenkins was the leading point-maker with eight field buckets.

Primo Sends Fans Home Early

Italian Kayoes Cowboy Owens In Second

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
New York, Feb. 7.—One thing can be said for Italy's big bump, Primo Carnara—he doesn't keep you out late at night. And the night he is licked, it will be over just as quickly and painlessly. The writer "rapped" to this hunch last night while Primo the Paralyzer was discounting and abating one Cowboy Billy Owens in three minutes and 23 seconds, eastern standard time. This was a new American record for the event and even then some of the cautious didn't like it.

They thought the cowboy barked too stoutly with his countenance at the start of the second round, it being merely a coincidence that the start of the round was the finish of the fight. As to the idea behind this parrying with the chin, one cannot say. All one knows is what the eye saw, which briefly was this: The principals fought one fast round and both came out with a rush for the second. They came together like a couple of trucks at a tilted corner and Primo landed the first blow with a left uppercut. It drove the cowboy back upon his heels and then quickly, efficiently, Primo the Primitive ended it with three rights to the jaw. The first two were right crosses, the third a straight punch that seemed to drive the cowboy into the floor as the thumb pushes a thumb-tack home. Primo did more than knock Owens out; he demolished him.

Owens Sets Record
It was Carnara's third fight in America and from the standpoint of the customer, his best. Owens establishing a new record by coming up for the second round, whereas Big Boy Peterson and Ellear Rhoux swanned in 70 and 47 seconds respectively. It also was Carnara's least gratifying opus from the standpoint of finance, it being estimated that the gate didn't beat $17,000, of which the big lumex took about $7,500.

He likewise took a couple of punches on the profile and torso while the opening heat was being run, so that the boys could qualify for the finals. One of these punches was a left hook that hit Carnara some two inches above the belt, causing him to look plaintively toward the referee. I must say I didn't like the gesture, a fact which makes everything even. Primo didn't like the punch.

It was this incident that gave me the impression that the man will fold, if the indication is sufficient. Cowboy Billy looked like a middle-weight beside him and wasn't supposed to win, anyhow. But one of these nights somebody is going to instigate Primo something terrible. One of his managers, Mr. Peter

Salem's Greatest Store For Men and Boys

Lisbon Cagers Oppose Salem High Tonight

Coach Floyd Stone's varsity passers will be gunning for their third consecutive victory in Columbiana county competition when they clash with Lisbon High at the Salem gym tonight.

It will be the sixteenth game of the season for the Stonemen who have been defeated eight times and on the heavy end of the score on seven occasions. A victory tonight will give the team an even 300 average.

Lisbon boys' greatest accomplishment of the season is a lopsided victory over East Palestine High, the team the Red and Black flippers were only able to nose out by two foul goals. The big blot on the county seat quintet's record is a 22-7 setback sustained in an engagement with Wellsville, who lost to Salem by a 30-23 score.

Lisbon girls, favorites to win the county championship, meet Coach Anne Oelschlaeger's sextet in the preliminary at 7:30. Lisbon has what is presumed to be the strongest girls' team in the county circuit and is favored to trim the Salem combine.

The county seat representatives hold decisions over Palestine, Columbiana and Wellsville, the latter two having defeated Salem teams.

Salem High terrors indulge in three games on their own hardwoods Saturday night. The varsity teams meet the strong Warren boys and girls squads while the reserves clash with the East Liverpool High reserves.

Juniors Win Easy Contest From Sophs

Junior Class girls easily won over the sophomores, 18-8 in an inter-class league game played Monday morning at the high school gym.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

"How a girl brought up in the country, and being wild flowers as you do can live with these things in beyond me!" Annette looked with scorn at the palatial artificial blossoms that adorned her old chum's living room.

"But they're so cheerful—just a splash of color," she defended herself feebly. And of course it didn't make a dent.

Many flower lovers carry their devotion to the real thing so far that they are really merciless. They have no sympathy with the innumerable city dwellers who cannot keep growing things in their rooms. Fresh flowers each day are out of the question for the four million or so who don't own backyards, and can't even patronize the florists regularly.

What other growing things are available? Bulbs need special care and after a few failures the poor bulbs were weeded on one in the first place, or something went wrong with the temperature, a little discouragement about the possibilities of growing bulbs in a city flat may arise. Beyond that, choice is limited to green ferns or succulents—which are not exactly brilliant. Pleasant enough if you like them.

But if there's a preference for brilliantly tinted blossoms, and the natural thing isn't available, why shouldn't one brighten up surroundings with well-simulated copies? In fact, artificial flowers are needed most in the places where it's practically impossible to keep growing plants—two little sun, undependable heating and so on.

And today, skilful workers in this art, have created some ideas that ought to dispel prejudices. Modern artificial flowers are not merely paper and muslin that feebly imitate natural blooms. There are now two distinctive groups.

One is the accurate imitation, so skilfully made of composition fabrics that they deceive the eye and the touch as well. They feel like carnations or roses or chrysanthemums as well as look like them. (One such variety is made of the core of the palm tree, which explains its curiously natural quality when touched.) Some are fairly expensive, but they keep their color well over a winter, and a half dozen or so, set in a shallow bowl will give a pleasant illusion of fresh flowers throughout the dark season.

But there is also another interesting type of artificial flower which goes to another extreme. Made of glass or shell or celluloid, they avoid the appearance of the natural. They are merely colorful decoration suggested by flowers. A few set in a bowl of pebbles are an amusing splash of color. Very cheerful, also durable.

Or a happy compromise may be effected if you can afford the growing vogue for flower paintings. A number of artists today are specializing on flower subjects—even painting them to order to fit certain spaces. A beautiful grouping of flowers via brush and canvas is a thing of joy, forever, and many rooms that are excessively dignified, or gloomily though elegantly furnished, may be rescued into a more cheerful stage by a beautiful flower painting. It should be of goodly size, conspicuously placed, so that it diffuses a cheerful light throughout the room.

If there's a fireplace, the space over the mantel is the logical one for the right-shaped painting. Or a corner wall that is too far from sunlight may be brightened with the brilliant flower picture.

Assassin's Plot Frustrated

Mexico City police reported they had frustrated a plot to assassinate President Emilio Portes Gil (right) and President-Elect Pascual Ortiz Rubio (left), and to blow up several buildings and seize the administration of the country. Of nineteen persons arrested several days ago, Valente Quintana, chief of police said, seventeen are held in connection with the plot.

Actually Crippled By Rheumatism, Now Walks

"There Is Nothing Too Strong To Say In Favor Of Owa-Ton-Na"

MR. FRED SMITH

At that life held for Mr. Fred Smith of 401 4th Street, S.W., Canton, Ohio, was a wheel chair and crutches. He says: "For more than eight years I thought I would never be able to walk a step by myself.

The points in my wrists, elbows, knees and ankles felt as if someone had poured molten lead on them. Pain was so severe that at times I almost cried but today that is all a thing of the past.

"I feel I owe my life, health and happiness to Owa-Ton-Na. I bless the day that I first started taking it. In addition to ridding me of my rheumatic pains, Owa-Ton-Na has given me new life and strength and a healthy appetite. No more pains or constipation. Constipation, which I had been suffering with for years, is gone and I do not have to take laxatives to keep my bowels regular. I know that anyone who takes Owa-Ton-Na diligently will get just as good results, but I don't think there is a case in Canton any worse than I was. It has been a life saver to me."

You will be thankful to yourself when you have taken Owa-Ton-Na. It may lead to just the things you have been yearning for—better health, no more aches and pains and the joy of the things about you. Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at Floding's, Holger & French and J. H. Lease drug stores.—Adv.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Feb. 7.—Capes are putting character into many coats and costumes for late winter days and will likely contribute much to spring and summer ones.

Capes are wraps for "five to eight" costumes are more frequently used in all the Paris houses than the coat and little caplets of fur, knotted at the neckline in front are worn by some of the most fashionable women. Even more frequent for afternoon than for sports costumes, one sees little capes; there are many little printed or plaid capes frocks with matching capes and numbers of cloth frocks for street wear have a cape cut to their bodies. In this case, when the cape is attached to the dress, its aim is to soften the effect of fitted seams and high waists. The cape theme undoubtedly harmonizes well with the flared skirts, tighter corsets and longer hemlines of the day.

One house is making a charming cape model in soft apple-green and jersey with black and silver backings. Another uses a beige and brown tweed mixture combined with bright green jersey, the tweed making cape and skirt and the jersey used for blouse and cape lining.

A cross blue wool chambray has a cleavage jacket that ties in a bow at the waistline and a short cape that ties in a bow at the neck.

Another house uses a fetching double cape on a gorgeous after-noon coat in black velvet and silver fox.

Today's Pattern

THE ensemble developed from the grown up mode, is the nearest feature for young fashionables, this season. The cunning model sketched today comprises a sleeveless frock made of printed cotton fabric and a coat lined with the fabric of the dress. There is a bit of trimming on the little dress, and two inverted pleats for fullness.

Design 1674 may be made of pique, linen, pongee or silk crepe. The coat would be smart of kasha, jersey or light weight tweed. Of course, both garments may be worn with other things and retain their smartness.

May be obtained only in sizes 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6 requires 1 1/2 yards; 36 inch fabric for dress and 2 1/2 yards for coat.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Leipzig To Have Fur Exposition

New York, Feb. 7.—The most elaborate "midway" ever assembled will be built in connection with the International Fur and Hunting Exposition to be held in Leipzig, Germany, this year. In response to the interest shown in recreational features by visitors to world fairs in many countries, amusements of unique interest have been devised.

There will be a realistic reproduction of an American city of skyscrapers in miniature, the first of its kind ever seen in Europe. An intricate scenic railway will carry visitors from the tops of skyscrapers to the subway levels, affording at every turn intimate glimpses of the American scene.

An entire village will be transported from China and rebuilt about an artificial lake, faithfully reproducing the original atmosphere. By night the village and water craft will be illuminated by thousands of Chinese lanterns. An Eskimo settlement with its population will be brought from the north and rebuilt in a realistic setting of artificial ice and snow. There will be a Russian trading center of the Middle Ages and an ancient caravan will form a pageant of the early history of the fur trade. Other features will be caucuses characteristic of several countries, a Vienna cafe, fashion revues, a dancing palace and countless typically European forms of entertainment.

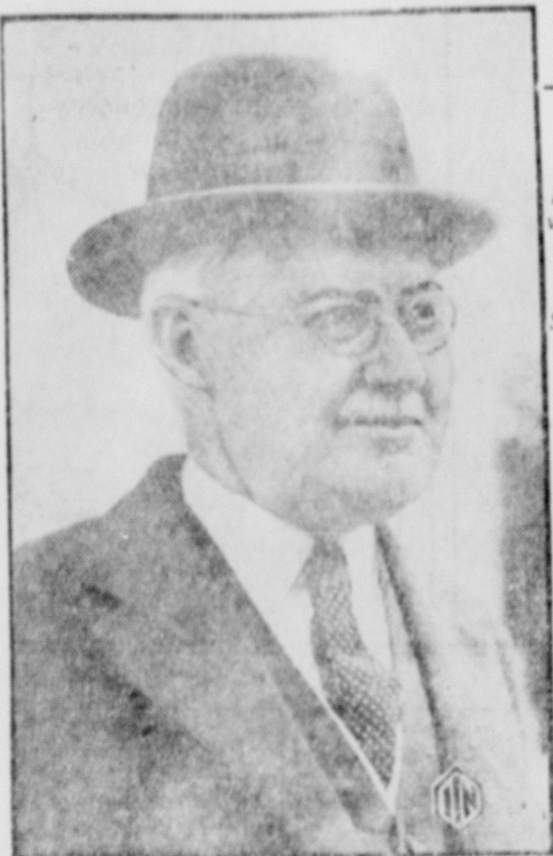

The midway will form a part of fur and hunting exposition to be held at Leipzig from end of May until September. In its five large scientific and educational halls the exposition will have exhibits sent from all leading fur producing nations including the United States. Here will be found not only exhibits representing every phase of the fur industry but displays of hunting trophies, ancient and modern weapons, and equipment of interest to both sportsmen and professional hunters.

Sweden Drops Plan For Sterilization

Stockholm, Feb. 7.—Not enough is known about the laws of heredity to justify the forcible sterilization of either the feebleminded or habitual criminals, the doctors of the Carline Institute, or Swedish Academy of Medicine, have declared in a formal report to the government in regard to a proposed law.

"Our knowledge as regards heredity in man is very scant, even if we hypothetically take a great deal for granted," says the memorandum of these servants who annually award the Nobel prize in medicine. "Furthermore, it seems to us that assumptions rather than exact knowledge constitute the foundations of the proposed measure." A law to prevent certain classes of public charges from propagating was tentatively passed by the Swedish Riksdag last year, but final promulgation was postponed until the eminent scientists of the Carline Institute had been consulted.

Senate Votes Grundy O. K.

DAILY ROUGHAGE IS AN ESSENTIAL IN ANY DIET

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Is Effective Relief for Constipation. Also Adds Iron to the Blood

Do you suffer from constipation? Are you one of those who have tried one "pocket cure" after another and still have no sense of permanent relief? If so, this is the news to you! Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is natural, effective relief for both temporary and recurring constipation. It is the original—and today is included in the diets of millions of people who formerly suffered from constipation.

When roughage is missing from food, constipation is the consequence. The soft foods we eat today seldom include enough roughage. The simple necessity, then, is to see to it that sufficient roughage is included in our food.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the bulk that your system requires.

In addition, it is rich in iron. Scientific research proves that nearly all this iron is absorbed by the system, building red blood and bringing the glorious color of health to the complexion.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is positively guaranteed. Your money will be returned if you are not satisfied. Be sure to include it in reducing diets as a preventive for both constipation and anemia.

There are so many ways you can eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN and enjoy it. In any form, it is appetizing. It is delicious with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over cereals and soups and notice the added flavor. Many people soak it in fruit juices. Excellent in cooked foods. Your grocer has Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. It is served in hotels, restaurants and dining-cars. Ask for it! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

The Real Indian Herb, Bark and Root Medicine

Mr. Pearl Steekly of 408 N. State St., Kendallville, Ind., writes: "I am more than pleased with TAN-A-WA Tonic has done for me. My stomach has been keeping me from my work and nothing I ate did me any good. I could not rest at night as my nerves were affected. I was losing weight and always worn out. I started taking TAN-A-WA Tonic and was surprised in just a few days I can now eat anything I want and I feel like a different man and will never fail to give TAN-A-WA Tonic a good word. TAN-A-WA Tonic acts promptly on sluggish bowels, lazy liver and weak kidneys. It purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores the appetite and brings new strength to the whole body."

Begg, former congressman and candidate for governor, will speak over WHK at 8:30. . . WHK's new transmitter, silent for quite a spell, is scheduled to start duty tonight. . . "Bonnie Jean" and Bobby Burns will be heroine and hero of the Famous Love broadcast over WLW and KDKA at 8:45.

LAST NIGHT'S RECEPTION

Distant stations again came in clear in Thursday's broadcasts. WFTW, Henderson's KWKH, WTIC, WSB, WRVA, WOH and EKI being especially good. . . of the lesser heard group WGY and WABC were best of the eastern stations while WSM was by far superior to any of the southerners. WHK, despite the fact that it was scheduled to start its new transmitter again last night, was drowned out by WADC and WJAS but may be heard better tonight. WFLA and WJAX from Florida were clear.

POLLY AND ANNA

Polly and Anna continue on their trip around the world via the magic carpet over WTAM at 5 tonight. It is a program both for the youngsters of the family and kiddies, the artists having received 870 letters in the past week, requesting membership in their "Glad Club". They came from persons of all ages. . . Another popular program, one of which is rapidly eclipsing the Gene and Glenn broadcast, is the Aunt Jemima Man every morning at 8 from KDKA. It is unusual in that the artist on the program sings news events together with providing entertainment of other types.

Study Astronomy From Mountain Top

Pasadena, Cal. Feb. 1.—Two people have been found who are enthusiastic about living miles away from everybody—on the top of a mountain, for months at a stretch.

Normal young people, too, are Mr. and Mrs. Homer T. Hutchinson. He is 25 and she is 24.

But they are so interested in science that they have gone to live on top of Pleasant View ridge in the San Gabriel mountains for three months.

Their task is to make astronomical observations on the summit.

With the possibility the 200-inch telescope to be built by the California Institute of Technology will be located there.

"I love it up here," Mrs. Hutchinson said over the radio from the mountain cabin they have built. "When we get up here a few days ago this place was only a bare cabin. Now it seems like home. We've painted the place, hung curtains, and done a lot of things."

"Astronomy? Not exactly. My husband has seen several wildcats and found tracks of mountain lions. There are a lot of deer up here. We hope to kill a lion before we leave in the spring."

Mrs. Hutchinson says she makes pumpkin pies just like she would at home, although their supply of food is by necessity mostly canned.

There are a lot of deer up here. We
